LABOR READY TO STIMULATE SALES OF ANTHRACITE

Union Stands 100% Behind Movement To Boost Buying

MORE WORK, MORE PAY

Not in Favor of Labor Migration At This Particular Time

(Editor's Note: The miner, vitally interested in efforts to revive the market for anthracite coal and thereby stimulate production, is ready to place his shoulder to the wheel in the gigantic co-operative movement to rebuild the economic structure of the industry. This is the assertion of Rinaldo Cappellini, widely known labor leader.

This interview is the fourth of a series prepared for The Courier by International News Service, presenting a survey of conditions in the hard coal regions.)

By H. T. Walton
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent
SCRANTON, Pa., Oct. 21.—Organized labor stands hand in hand with mine operators and merchants in the anthracite regions of Pennsylvania in plans sponsored by civic bodies of the region to stimulate the sale of coal.

This is the assurance of Rinaldo Cappellini, president of District No. 1, United Mine Workers of America, a recognized leader in the hard coal regions. Cappellini today sent this message to the operators and merchants of the region, through International News Service:

"The miners' union stands one hundred per cent. behind the movement to stimulate buying of anthracite and to consider other problems that confront the industry.

"Stimulation of the industry means more work and more wages for the union mine workers. And more work and more money for the workers means bigger business for the merchants and prosperity for the entire populace of the hard coal fields. The miners' union always favors anything that tends to improve working and business conditions."

The labor leader was strong in his approval of measures looking toward a co-operative movement to stimulate the sale of anthracite. Co-operative meetings held in communities of the region to better industrial conditions have the hearty approval of the unionists, he said.

"The anthracite industry is the chief industry of northeast Pennsylvania and thousands and thousands of persons depend upon it for a livelihood. When the wheels of the great anthracite industry slow down the entire region feels the effects. When the industry is running to capacity there is prosperity everywhere in the region. Stimulation of sales means better conditions for the miners and public in general," Cappellini said.

Turning his attention to regional labor problems, Cappellini said he does not favor the migration of mine workers from other fields into the anthracite region at the present time, because miners now there are finding it difficult to secure full time work.

"Although I do not favor migration to this region now, in the event there is a change and more men are needed, the union would naturally encourage the practice," he said.

There are more than 150,000 men employed in the anthracite industry today and of this number approximately 70,000 work in Cappellini's district, which comprises Scranton and Wilkes-Barre and towns north of Scranton as far as Forest City, and south of Scranton to Nanticoke.

TRADE NOTES

Tomorrow morning a former Bristol boy will open a cut rate drug store at 310 Mill street. The proprietor of the new store is Nathan Hoffman, who lived here with his parents for many years, and attended the local schools.

Hoffman, today, is advertising in The Courier that as an introductory offer he will give away tomorrow a beautiful compact.

A 25 cent sale is now in progress at the grocery store of John F. Wear, Bath and Buckley streets. Many articles of canned vegetables, cereals, cocoa, etc., are included in the sale.

Residents of Bristol and the surrounding communities are sharing in the eighth anniversary of the establishment of the business of Harry Straus, who now has headquarters at 417 Mill street.

Edwin Wright, Jr., Weds Miss Augusta Wallace

A quiet wedding took place last night when Edwin V. Wright, Jr., and Miss Augusta Wallace were united in marriage at the home of the groom, 221 Dorrance street, at seven o'clock.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Henry M. Hartmann, S. T. D., pastor of the Bristol Presbyterian Church.

The bride was attended by Miss Rhoda Loechner, and Charles Wallace, brother of the bride, was best man. Miss Wallace was given in marriage by her father, Frederick Wallace.

The bride wore powder blue georgette, trimmed with navy blue velvet, and a corsage bouquet. Her stockings were of gray and she wore black shoes.

Miss Loechner was costumed in navy blue georgette. She had a corsage bouquet, gray stockings and black shoes.

Only the immediate members of the families attended.

After a short honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Wright will return to their home, 221 Dorrance street.

AUTO TAGS NEXT YEAR TO BE BLUE ON GOLD

Customary Change To Be Made in Color Schemes Of Other States

OTHER STATE NEWS

HARRISBURG, Oct. 21 (I.N.S.).—Following the custom of alternating the color of the numerals and background, Pennsylvania auto license tags next year will have blue numerals and letters on a background of gold.

A list compiled by the Pennsylvania motor federation shows that only two states, California and Missouri, will use the same colors although not the same combination as Pennsylvania.

New York tags will be yellow numerals on a black background and New Jersey's will be white numerals on a sky blue background. Virginia will use orange numerals on a black background while those of West Virginia will be a green background with white letters and numerals. Tags issued by Ohio will have a dark blue background with white numerals and letters.

HAGERSTOWN, Oct. 21 (I.N.S.).—Now comes the whiskey punch board to worry prohibition officers.

A raid on an alleged resort here unearthed a punch board which excited the attention of authorities. Each "punch" cost five cents, and a purchaser was entitled to a drink after purchasing a given number of "punches."

"Lucky numbers" entitled the winners prizes ranging from a pint of liquor to a half gallon.

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Oct. 21 (I.N.S.).—His efforts to strike a difficult note on his cornet cost Joseph Betkowski, 21, his life at his home in Glen Lyon.

Betkowski, practicing on the wind instrument, blew with such force that he ruptured a blood vessel in his lung, and the resultant hemorrhage caused his death.

HARRISBURG, Oct. 21 (I.N.S.).—Governor John S. Fisher has designated the week of Nov. 7 to 13 as Pennsylvania Education Week and in a proclamation asked the co-operation of all citizens in obtaining the aims for which the week is intended.

"An intimate knowledge of our schools," the Governor said, "and a deeper appreciation of Pennsylvania's achievements, will be an effective and appropriate lesson in citizenship not only for the childhood but for all the people of our Commonwealth."

MOUNT CARMEL, Pa., Oct. 21 (I.N.S.).—The Mount Carmel Anthracite Co-operative conference, to consider the needs of the hard coal industry, is becoming international in scope.

A report of the Chamber of Commerce committee sent to Toronto to interest Dominion anthracite dealers in the conference here next month, indicates that a number of dealers from Canada have signified their intention to attend.

Roy C. Haines, secretary of the local chamber, also has been advised that representatives and experts from General Motors, Inc., Chrysler Sales Corp., Burroughs Adding Machine Company, Chevrolet Motors, and a number of other corporations doing nationwide business, will attend the conference.

Herbert Hoover, Secretary of Commerce, is the featured speaker at the conference, while Gov. John S. Fisher and scores of other notables are expected to attend.

Magician To Appear At Harriman Church

Tonight, starting at 8.15, in the Harriman M. E. Church, Mr. Brooks, the clever magician, will give a demonstration of his abilities to the public. He will be assisted in his work by a clever comedian.

The entertainment is given under the auspices of the Epworth League of the church and the general public is invited to attend.

LATE NEWS

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 21 (I.N.S.).—More than 100 searchers combed the countryside near Tilford, Pa., 25 miles north of this city, throughout the night and morning for Harold Shade, 12, believed to have been kidnapped.

WILMINGTON, Del., Oct. 21 (I.N.S.).—Dressed in gala attire and in a holiday mood, this city is all set to acclaim Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, when he arrives here this afternoon in his famous "Spirit of St. Louis." The daring trans-Atlantic flier will leave Baltimore shortly after noon, arriving here at 2 o'clock.

SUES TO GET DAMAGES FOR AUTO ACCIDENT

Newtown Couple Wants To Be Compensated for Bridge Automobile Crash

OCCURRED IN JULY, 1925

DOYLESTOWN, Oct. 21.—Trial started yesterday in Court No. 1 before Judge Ryan in the case of Martin Siatowski and his wife, Albina Siatowski, of Newtown, against A. Bavington, of Frankford. The plaintiffs are suing for damages alleged to have been sustained in an automobile collision at the approach of the Yardley bridge and the Delaware River road, at Yardley, on July 26, 1925.

Siatowski, a shoemaker, testified that he was operating his automobile at 15 miles an hour and approaching the bridge. Before he got to the Delaware River road intersection, Siatowski said that he looked in both directions and could not see a car, but when he had almost crossed the road, the Bavington car struck his car in the rear and overturned it.

The plaintiff said that he lost $150 income from his shoemaker shop because he could not work for two weeks as a result of his injuries. He said that a $9 solid gold ring that his wife gave him for a present was crushed on his finger, that his car was damaged and had to be traded in after the accident, and that one of his eyes was permanently injured as a result of the accident. He said his car was worth $750 before the accident and that he would not give $300 for it after the accident. He had to pay $45.50 repair bill for his car, he said, and then he added, that it never worked; that the wheels wobbled after that and he traded it in.

Dr. Henry L. Bastian, of Yardley, testified that he treated Siatowski for two badly lacerated fingers, taking four stitches in one finger.

The defense was that the plaintiff was to blame for the accident, that the plaintiff was operating carelessly and in passing around Bavington, crashed into the other car.

At this point court adjourned until Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

APPEALS VERDICT OF JURY; LADY GETS $10,000 FOR BURNS

Mrs. Anna H. Frederick Wins Award After Jury Hears Case

PLAN BIG LEGAL FIGHT

Rumor Is That Case Will Be Carried To Supreme Court

DOYLESTOWN, Oct. 21.—After deliberating four hours a jury in the Court of Common Pleas of Bucks County yesterday awarded a verdict in the sum of $13,000 in the suit brought by Mrs. Anna H. Frederick, aged 60, of Perkasie, and her husband, Horace B. Frederick, against Dr. Otto H. Strouse, a Perkasie physician.

The jury awarded Mrs. Frederick $10,000 damages in her suit for $50,000 and $3000 to her husband in a suit for $10,000. The case was on trial for three days before Judge William C. Ryan in Court No. 1.

After the verdict had been announced, Howard I. James, of Bristol, one of the two attorneys for the defense, applied to the Court to file reasons for a new trial. It was stated unofficially yesterday after the verdict had been announced that the case, if necessary, will be appealed to the Superior and Supreme courts, and that a State medical association together with the insurance company representing Dr. Strouse, is interested in the defendant's case.

The verdict was for injuries Mrs. Strouse says she sustained while she was being treated by Dr. Strouse in 1923. The woman told the jury that she sustained X-ray burns caused by the negligence of Dr. Strouse. She testified that when the last treatment was administered Dr. Strouse was negligent and failed to place the proper filters in the machine to prevent an X-ray burn.

WAR FILM TO SHOW MANY ENTIRE NATIONS

Famous Motion Picture Uses Great Portion of World As A Setting

SHOWN AT LANGHORNE

"The World War," a motion picture utilizing a great portion of the world as a set, with entire nations playing minor parts and with eleven-twelfths of the world's population in the cast, will have its initial appearance at the Casino Theatre, South Langhorne, Pa., on November 4th.

This unusual picture, which is being shown in South Langhorne under the auspices of Jesse W. Soby Post No. 148 of the American Legion, has been described as "at once the most thrilling and authentic history of the World War that has ever been told in pictures."

The story of this picture's creation, the lives lost in "shooting" its scenes, the months of delving into the archives of the governments of the United States, Great Britain, France, Italy, Russia and Germany to obtain official data and pictures, the years devoted to its careful preparation, and the official seals of the United States Navy and Army Departments stamped on the film (the first time in the history of motion pictures that these great seals have appeared on films), all these unusual elements in this picture's preparation make it what it is—"the first big historical motion picture of the World War."

Its action covers the greatest drama in the history of the world over a period of four years. Therein lies the remarkable feature of this unusual picture; it has successfully brought to the screen in comprehensive graphic form the most gigantic war in the history of the world. This has been done by careful compilation of scenes that are revealing, impressive and authentic.

War in all its phases is seen in this film. There are no picked scenes. The lumbering tanks, the murderous machine guns sweeping No-Man's Land, the poisonous gas, the smoke screens, the depth bombs, sinking of ships by submarines, the flare of star-shells, the earth in angry protest, the wire entanglements, the falling planes, the falling men—all the elements of war are seen in this great picture.

"The title of the picture, 'The World War,' is no misnomer," one critic said. "It is just that. When you have seen it you will know."

ALLEGED FIRE BUG TO FACE TRIAL AT THE COUNTY SEAT

Authorities Claim to Have Confession from Finland Youth

CAUSED FARMERS' IRE

Other Blazes To Be Probed Thoroughly by The Police

Bucks County authorities, State Police and officials of the Bucks County Firemen's Association are warring against incendiary fires in the county. John Magonerey, 17, of Finland, was placed on trial today before the court at Doylestown, on the charge of arson.

State police claim to have obtained a confession from Magonerey in which he admitted setting fire to the barn of Linford Foulke, near Trumbauersville, on September 30th, one of three barns destroyed by fire of unknown origin in that section in two weeks.

After the frequent burning of barns in the upper end of the county the farmers and firemen became aroused and the Bucks County Firemen's Association was called into the case.

Ralph Gardener, special investigator of the State Police department, was assigned to the case, and has solved this one blaze, it is thought.

The Finland lad will face the court today.

It appears that Magonerey was to meet two other lads on the morning of the blaze. They were to have slept in the barn overnight and then the three were to leave for Detroit in the morning. The Finland boy claims that he went to the barn to meet his friends but found no trace of them. He searched the barn but found that all had left. This angered him and he set fire to the building.

He then went to the farm of a neighbor and endeavored to borrow a horse so that he could ride to Trumbauersville to give the alarm. He could not borrow the horse but was advised to use a telephone but he stated that the phone was out of order. This later was found to be untrue.

At the next term of Criminal Court a group of Philadelphians will face trial for creating a disturbance at a bungalow in Hulmeville Park. A witness will appear against them testifying that oil had been liberally sprinkled about the building and that evidence tends to show that an effort was made to fire it.

Hulmeville

The following will attend the annual convention of the North District Epworth League, which will take place at Allentown, this evening, and Saturday and Sunday: Misses Myrtle Egly, Nellie E. Main, Dorothy Dicken, Marie Hanson, Erda Schatt, Grace H. Illick, Dorothy Danforth, Adeline E. Reelz, Helen Bilger; and Albert Kauffman and son, Arthur. A few of the group will leave today, while the remainder will make the trip tomorrow via automobile.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gill were: Mrs. Ann Subers, Miss Florence Witham, and Jack Neivous, of Trenton, N. J.; the Misses Sarah and Isabella Gill and Miss Margaret Gill, of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Arthur Gillingham and daughters, and Mrs. Christian Tomlinson and son, Albert, of Langhorne, spent Thursday with Mrs. Ezekiah Barton.

Sammy Moffo Wins Over Norristown Youth

Sammy Moffo, the local battler, was in his very best form last night when he out-generated and out-fought Tony Scirtino, the "Walloping Wop" from Norristown.

Moffo carried six rounds of the eight round wind-up and when the final bell sounded, ending the fight, it was no doubt that the Bristol gloveman had added another victory to his long list, which only shows four reverses.

The first round saw Sammy dancing in and out, jabbing "Push-em-up Tony" while the Norristown lad took all that came his way, waiting for an opening, which he is still waiting for. The first round was even. Moffo was entitled to all the rest, except the fourth, when the fans saw Tony near victory. He nailed Sammy with a right which sent the Bristol boy against the ropes. Tony followed him up, but here the local lad showed great ring generalship. He quickly succeeded in tying, then he proceeded to box cautiously.

The Norristown lad was out-boxed during the remainder of the bout. Moffo weighed 135 pounds, one-half pound more than Scirtino.

Billy Moffo, substituting for another fighter, suffered a bad fate, when a cut opened on his eye, so the referee called off the bout in the third round. His opponent was Ray Martell.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1927

THE SEASON APPROACHES

From now until the sun first flecks the sky with a ray of light on the morning of November 1st will there be busy moments in the homes of the gunners of not only Bucks but other counties as well.

For the past few weeks talk has been rampant in regards to the best fields for game, and the opening and closing dates for certain game has been discussed again and again. Trips to oft-visited camps in the hills have longed been arranged for, and now last-minute items are being attended to.

Bucks County gunners have been eagerly watching for appearance of the rabbit and pheasant, and have likewise had their eye on other game news in various sections of the state.

Guns are being cleaned and repaired; game bags and gunning costumes have been taken from their winter resting place for the final "look-over." Merchants of the city and small town have for some time had their new stock of wearing apparel needed on such expeditions on their shelves.

Dogs have been sold and purchased, raised from pups and trained, all for this particular season, which every lover of the sport has had his eye on.

On the other hand the farmers throughout the wide country sections have been busily engaged placarding their lands against the encroachments of the seekers for game. For many reasons is this being done: A personal desire to have the pretty stately-looking pheasants preserved; a desire not to have the lands over-run by strangers and thus insure protection to late crops; and the wish to guard against possible injury to cattle or poultry from stray shots.

With the first streak of daylight spanning the Eastern sky on Tuesday, the first, there will be found in field and highway, in wood and clearing, the group that has for many months awaited the open season on game, marching to the "fray" with a gun over shoulder, a dog in the lead, and a large bag ready to receive the "kill."

ABOVE SUSPICION

As sport becomes more and more big business owing to the large amount of money its followers contribute to it, many incidents cast suspicion upon its genuineness. The prize ring, baseball and racing suffer most in this respect. When those who follow them closely enough to speak authoritatively are constantly shouting that this, that or the other incident demonstrates that there has been crooked work, the public can hardly be blamed if it becomes skeptical.

Formerly this feeling was accentuated by mistrust of the promoters of sporting events. The prize ring is still suffering under this handicap, which is aggravated by the low types from which it draws many of its principals. Racing stables are usually owned by rich men of proven sportsmanship, but riders, drivers and track followers often bear watching. Baseball produces its periodic scandals.

The Dempsey-Tunney fights were fought in a way that disarmed criticism of a nature that might have hurt this sport. No credence was placed in the talk of foul play and frame-up in the first battle, and even the talk was missing after the second encounter. Nothing, in recent years, had such a salutatory effect on organized baseball as the playing of the world series in four games.

Never before a Home Water System value like this!

A TRIUMPH in home water plant building! A new big capacity system. A new low price. A system that brings all running water comforts and conveniences within reach of EVERY home!

That is the accomplishment of Fairbanks-Morse in the new automatic P.M. Home Electric Water System.

See this new 210-gallons-per-hour system and you will be convinced that it is years ahead. It is a completely automatic in operation. Fully enclosed. Finished in beautiful dull blue automobile lacquer. Compact. Entirely complete. A genuine Fairbanks-Morse plant—fully guaranteed.

Only $20 down and $5 per month

The Fairbanks-Morse finance plan makes it easy for you to install this system at once. Pay twenty dollars down—then five dollars a month. Come in today and see a demonstration.

ATWATER KENT RADIO SPEAKERS

You are invited to hear this wonderful new Speaker

THERE'S something new in town! It's the wonderful Atwater Kent Radio Speaker—Model E. Our customers are all enthusiastic about it. So are we.

Here's a speaker that does full justice to any receiving set. If you've been wondering how you could get better reception with your set—no matter whether it's new or old—give the Model E a trial and note the difference.

The Model E has an entirely new type of operating unit and a new method of cone suspension which allows the cone to respond to the faintest vibrations over its whole surface. The result is astonishing. You hear the whole range of tones from the lowest to the highest. You hear reality!

To hear this extraordinary speaker is to appreciate why it took nearly three years of work in the Atwater Kent laboratory before it was put on the market. No matter what make of receiver you own, it will pay you to come in and make comparisons.

MODEL E RADIO SPEAKER. With 9 feet of flexible cord. $30

The quality goes in before the name goes on

Why does not Zenith build a radio receiver to sell for less than $100.00?

Zenith has the laboratory, the engineers, the organization and the financial resources to build any kind of radio. Then why not go below the $100.00 price?

Zenith Model 14
A sensitive, highly selective 6-tube receiver of remarkable tone quality and range. The cabinet is of solid mahogany with ornamental overlay and panels of beautifully figured maple. The doors do not stand open like traps, but fold back against the sides of the cabinet, out of view. Model 14 will bring you all that is fine in radio.

For Battery Operation—$180
Completely Electrical—$225

The answer is that the Zenith standard of quality cannot be built into a receiver of lower price. Zenith will not put its name to a receiver that is not highly selective, powerful, faithful to the entire tone scale and wrought with surpassing skill and durability.

Performance comes first in Zenith—there is no compromise. The 6-tube set has six working tubes instead of five working tubes and one balancing tube. Instead of three condensers the 6-tube set has four—the 8 and 10-tube sets have five and six condensers respectively.

In every detail the same exacting standards are carried out. Zenith costs more but it does more. Hear Zenith and you will agree that Zenith is unsurpassed.
